

Interesting Adjectives - Worksheet

Adjectives List:

brilliant, curious, delicious, elegant, friendly, grumpy, hilarious, important, jealous, kind, lonely, mysterious, nervous, polite, quiet, reliable, silly, talented, unusual, wild

Fill in the missing word in each sentence using an adjective from the list above. Use each word only once.

1. She gave a _____ smile that made everyone feel welcome.
2. The soup was absolutely _____ - I want more!
3. He told a _____ joke that made the whole class laugh.
4. It was a _____ day at the beach, not too hot or cold.
5. The _____ child kept asking questions about everything.
6. This is a very _____ situation. Nobody knows what's going on.
7. Our teacher is very _____; she always helps us with problems.
8. He felt _____ before his first big exam.
9. My cat gets _____ when I play with other animals.
10. That was a _____ thing to do. Thank you for your help.
11. He wore a _____ suit to the wedding. Everyone admired it.
12. Don't be so _____! You're not a clown.
13. She's a very _____ artist and plays the guitar beautifully.
14. Please be _____ to the new student.
15. He's a very _____ friend. I can trust him with anything.
16. It's _____ how the door opened by itself.
17. The forest looked dark and _____ at night.
18. She's always _____ when meeting new people.
19. The lion was strong and _____ as it ran through the plains.
20. He was feeling _____ after moving to a new city.